HOMESTAY POLICY

1. Host families offer their homes as part of a cultural exchange. It is as much students responsibility to fit into the lifestyle of your family as it theirs to provide you with a safe, friendly, educational, and caring environment.
2. Students will be required to provide feedback on the host family regularly to ensure customer satisfaction. Students can expect a comfortable private bedroom with study desk and lamp, access to bathroom, use of TV, telephone, laundry, and three daily meals made available. Snacks, maid service, and extra events are not included.
3. Students are expected to act responsibly and respectfully toward their homestay and their property.
4. LAB attempts to ensure that there are no other students who speak the same native language in the same home.
5. Students are required to provide their own insurance and are responsible for their own health and property.
6. Each family has its own house rules regarding smoking, alcohol consumption, responsibilities, cleaning, security, noise, friends visiting, telephone use, meal times, etc. Discuss these with your family.
7. Most Canadian families do not allow smoking in their homes but some will allow it outside the house. Please inform us if you smoke, and check your booking before arriving.
8. All comments regarding homestay should be relayed to LAB through our homestay survey. Students will be relocated when complaints are justifiable.
9. LAB cannot guarantee a suitable homestay if bookings are not made 30 days in advance of arrival, although attempts will be made to satisfy requests.
10. Full payment is required 30 days in advance to guarantee selected homestays. Any concerns can be dealt with immediately by contacting the LAB Homestay department.

Disclaimer: LAB in no way accepts responsibility or liability for damage, loss, or injury that occurs to the student or homestay as a result of either the student or the homestay family.

LAB is currently placing students with host families through an outsourced Homestay agency. This homestay disclaimer applies to all participants in this homestay program, including hosts, applicants, affiliates, students and clients.

Homestay Change and Cancelation Placement fee is non-refundable. 30 days' notice in writing must be given if students wish to change, extend, reduce, or cancel their accommodation, and a $200 administration fee will be charged or deducted from the refund.
